

Town of Framingham

Massachusetts

HISTORICAL COMMISSION

November 10, 1988

The meeting of the Framingham Historical Commission was called to order by Ch. Molly Evans in lower Nevins Hall.
Present: Ch. Molly Evans, Bonnie Bryant, Ralph Funk and Sec. Marjorie Maish.

The Secretary's report by Bonnie Bryant-Pro Tem was read and accepted.

Old Business: Edgell Memorial Chapel. Ch. Evans consulted with Dr. Willis about the Chapel being put on the National Register and he and the board are not ready at present. Correspondence was read from the New England Foundation for the Arts with a new guide to its' program and services. A newsletter was read from the Mass. Historical Commission regarding the 25th Anniversary of the creation of the Mass. Historical Commission which in turn allowed communities to create their own local historical commissions.

New Business: Inventory Corrections

- A. Whiting Fountain
- B. Act I Arena Theatre will take up occupancy in the R. H. Long Dairy barn on Fountain Street.
- C. Dr. Paul's property "Stonegate" - Builder De Jong is bankrupt.
- D. Old Country Club- Correction
- E. Regarding letter about "Hayes Home" in Saxonville. It was abandoned and burned in 1980 by the Fire Fighters' Academy.
- F. Gordon Corner Sign - The committee feels it should be made of metal to thwart vandalism.
- G. Discussion about Gordon Bridge- Bonnie made motion for making the Bridge and Marjorie seconded.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned at 9:PM.

The next meeting will be held in January 1989.

Marjorie Maish

Marjorie Long Maish
Secretary